

TRAINING COURSE IN

Principles of Façade Conservation

Authored and Delivered by

Priestman Associates LLP

Purpose of this programme:

This course is usually delivered over 1 or 2 days and provides underpinning knowledge for contractors and their workforce engaging in specialist façade preservation.

Duration of one of these programme:

1 or 2 days.

Programme content:

- Conservation Philosophies
- Water Cleaning
- Abrasive Cleaning
- Chemical Cleaning
- Masonry Repair Techniques
- Relative Safety Issues

Programme fee:

For no obligation information and quotation please email: office@priestmanweb.com providing the following information:

- Your firm and your contact details
- Number of employees requiring training and their years of construction site experience
- Ideal time for the course to be delivered

© Priestman Associates LLP

We can also assist your experienced workforce to gain the qualifications required to apply for the correct CSCS card for the job they are doing!

The level 1 CSCS recognised equivalent course: Principles of Construction Site Health & Safety

Specialist Apprenticeship Programmes in façade preservation, stone fixing and modular stone paving

Level 2 NVQs in façade preservation, stonemasonry (banker, cladder, cutter, fixer or floor fixer), modular paving, specialist concrete repair and water jetting

Level 3 NVQs in contracting operations, heritage skills (façade preservation, mason or wood occupations) and occupational work supervision

Level 6 NVQs in contracting management and construction site management (civil engineering or conservation)

There's more, ask us about our range of

- On-Site Assessed NVQs
- Specialist Apprenticeship Programmes
- Industry CPDs
- Bespoke training
- and First Aid Training

PRIESTMAN™
Associates LLP

www.priestmanweb.com

office@priestmanweb.com

+44 (0) 115-975-1880